Count the letter you chose most often – this reveals your dominant personal style archetype.

Read the descriptions below and imagine how they can guide your wardrobe, your confidence, and the way you show up in the world. This is your style identity, celebrating who you truly are!

A → Effortless Natural

You value comfort, ease, and authenticity above all. Your wardrobe is filled with relaxed silhouettes, soft and breathable fabrics, and easy-to-wear pieces that feel natural in your everyday life. You tend toward practical, versatile clothing that moves with you and supports your lifestyle. Accessories and footwear are functional yet thoughtful, enhancing your look without complicating it. Many Effortless Naturals naturally gravitate toward neutral and soft colours, which make styling effortless and allow your personality to shine. Your personal style mirrors your approachable, grounded, and effortlessly confident energy.

B → Timeless Classic

You embody elegance, refinement, and sophistication. Your wardrobe is curated with structured, versatile pieces that feel polished and intentional – blazers, tailored trousers, and dresses that move seamlessly from day to night. Accessories are thoughtful and carefully chosen, enhancing your overall look with subtle sophistication. Your style reflects your inner confidence and reliability, projecting composure and poise. Focus on fabrics, silhouettes, and clean lines rather than specific colours – your timeless style works across seasons and trends, making you feel prepared and graceful in every situation.

C → Creative Spirit

You see clothing as a canvas for self-expression. Your wardrobe is eclectic, artistic, and full of personality, with unique textures, patterns, and combinations that showcase your originality. You love experimenting and mixing unexpected pieces, turning accessories, shoes, and layers into personal statements. Your style is playful, expressive, and full of life – just like you. Dressing in this way allows you to tell a story, spark curiosity, and inspire creativity in those around you. Fabrics, prints, and bold details are your playground; colour is just one way to explore your individuality.

D → Bold Dramatic

You love to stand out and make a statement. Your style is daring, striking, and unapologetic, using shapes, textures, and statement pieces to communicate confidence and presence. Accessories and footwear are bold, edgy, and impactful, complementing your adventurous personality. Many Bold Dramatic types naturally gravitate toward high-contrast or attention-grabbing colours, which amplify their fearless energy. Fashion is your form of self-expression, and you thrive when your outfits reflect your assertiveness, strength, and willingness to take risks. You inspire others with your courage and dynamic sense of style.

E → Feminine Romantic

Softness, grace, and elegance define your style. You are drawn to flowing fabrics, gentle textures, and clothing with subtle details that feel delicate and enchanting. Your accessories and footwear are thoughtfully chosen, refined, and often delicate, completing your look in a way that enhances your natural charm. Your style reflects your warmth, kindness, and femininity, making you feel beautiful, confident, and elegant. Dressing in this way allows you to celebrate your softness and sophistication, leaving a lasting impression of poise and grace. Colour can be expressive but is less important than the mood and texture of your look.
